OBITUARY

Viola Perkins was born to Willie and Martha Starr in Hartshorne, Oklahoma, the fourth of seven children.

She attended the public schools in Oklahoma. Later she attended Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, and also Langston University in Oklahoma.

After moving to California, she met and married Spencer Perkins, who preceded her in death.

She was a teacher in the Delta Head Start Program.

Mrs. Perkins was a devoted wife, a dedicated teacher, and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Her immediate survivors are, two sisters, Bessie Crump and Gussie Edmondson, two brothers, Wallace and Earnest Starr, of Kansas City, Missouri, three brothers-in-law, James, Kenneth and Lewis Perkins, and three sisters-in-law, Margret, Helen Richardson, and Lucy Hale.

She is also survived by a host of nieces and nephews, and cousins, and other relatives and friends.
